International Women's Day

Date and Time: Friday, March 8 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Address: 1914B Mt Albert Road

When we inspire others to understand and value women's inclusion, we forge a better world.

And when women themselves are inspired to be included, there's a sense of belonging, relevance, and empowerment.

The aim of the IWD 2024 #InspireInclusion campaign is to collectively forge a more inclusive world for women.

East Gwillimbury Gardeners public meeting with speaker

Date and Time: Tuesday, March 19 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: This meeting will be presented online

"Fighting the Triffids": popular speaker Sean James introduces native alternatives to invasive ornamentals in the garden. Some garden plants can be too successful in our gardens, taking up more than their share of the space. Sean James suggests native plants which will help keep the garden beautiful while providing food and shelter for birds, bees and butterflies.

All are welcome to join us with GoogleMeet for this interesting presentation. For a link to join the meeting, please email eggardeners@gmail.com.

Complete Communities Secondary Plan - Public Information Session

Date and Time: Thursday, March 21 3:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 18974 Leslie Street, Sharon

A public information session will be held to receive input on the Complete Communities Secondary Plan on March 21, 2024, from 3 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. at the Temperance Hall located at 18974 Leslie Street, Sharon.

On September 6, 2023, East Gwillimbury Council commenced the East Gwillimbury Complete Communities (Whitebelt) Secondary Plan. The purpose of the Secondary Plan is to establish a detailed planning framework and urban land uses in accordance with the policies of the Town of East Gwillimbury Official Plan and York Region Official Plan (2022) to allow the Town to begin the long-range planning of the Town's new community areas.

This public information session will be held to present Phase One, Emerging Preferred Plan, of the Complete Communities Secondary Plan with attendees. Please note that this is a drop-in session. Representatives from the Town and the Consultant team will be available to answer questions and discuss the Secondary Plan Study. Feedback from attendees will inform the final version of the Secondary Plan Study.

Creativity for Your Business

Join us for this in-person workshop on Tuesday, March 26 at 10 a.m.

Register today!

Join us for a free in-person workshop dedicated to revolutionizing the way entrepreneurs create new ideas. In an era where innovation is the cornerstone of success, this workshop aims to incite a change in entrepreneurial thinking.

In this workshop we delve deep into the psyche of the modern entrepreneur. Through this workshop and thought-provoking discussions led by industry expert Leo Chan, attendees will gain an understanding of what creativity is, key principles to stimulate, nurture, and grow their creativity and gain tools to incorporate creative practices into their lives. Creativity is the fuel for innovation - it's what enables individuals to generate ideas and possibilities to solve problems. It's also one of the most desired skills for the future of work. But, people either think you're creative or you're not. This isn't the case. Creativity is a muscle. Those who exercise creativity are more creative; those who don't, are less creative.

Join us with Leo Chan the founder of Abound Innovation Inc. He's a people and heart-first entrepreneur who believes everyone can be an innovator. An innovator himself, with 55 US patents and over 20 years of experience, Leo has come alongside organizations like Chick-fil-A and guided them to unleash the innovative potential of their employees by transforming them into confident innovators. Leo's friendly, joyful and enthusiastic demeanor makes the journey to innovation exciting and attainable.

Register and join us in-person in East Gwillimbury, ON on Tuesday, March 26 at 10 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. Location will be shared once registered: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/848702852077?aff=oddtcreator>
